1. Executive summary

The Shire of Jerramungup's Access and Inclusion Plan 2019 - 2024 provides a planned approach to improving the physical access to services and facilities, as well as incorporating inclusion at a participatory and service level. Understanding that individuals have varied needs and expectations, the Shire has the resources and capabilities to make a difference on the quality of life of the people with disability, who live, work and spend time in our community.

The Western Australian Disability Services Act (1993) requires that local governments develop a Disability Access and Inclusion Plan (DAIP) in accordance with the format prescribed in the Act and subsidiary regulations. The amendments to the Disability Services Act (1993) in 2004, contain the requirement for Local Government Authorities to develop and implement a DAIP that will further both the principles and the objectives of the Act. The Shire's DAIP has been prepared in accordance with these requirements.

The Shire of Jerramungup is committed to improving the accessibility of its facilities and services for people with disability. The Plan provides the strategic direction and strategies for the Shire to improve its services and facilities as well as partnering with the community to achieve progress in this field.

The Shire will submit an annual progress report to the Disability Services Commission and report on the implementation of the Plan in the Shire's Annual Report. The Shire of Jerramungup will review its Access and Inclusion Plan every five years to ensure currency and relevance.

3. Background

3.1 Shire of Jerramungup – overview

The Shire of Jerramungup was established on 1 July 1982, having been annexed from the Shire of Gnowangerup.

Located 440 kilometres southeast of Perth, the Shire of Jerramungup is the western gateway to the world famous Fitzgerald River National Park. The Shire comprises of 645,110 hectares and incorporates the large towns of Jerramungup and Bremer Bay and the smaller towns and districts of Needilup, Jacup, Gairdner and Boxwood Hill.

The town of Jerramungup was established in 1953 as a war service settlement area. Though only a relatively young farming and agriculture region, the area is rich in history and proud of its heritage.

The town of Bremer Bay is growing fast both in terms of development and tourism. The unspoilt coastline offers numerous recreational pursuits from fishing, beach combing and walking on some of the finest beach sand in the southern hemisphere, whale watching and not to mention swimming in the magnificent turquoise waters of the various bays and beaches.

The Fitzgerald River National Park is one of the largest national parks in Australia containing 20% of the States described plant species. The park covers an area of 329 039 ha and is one of the most diverse botanical regions in the world, featuring more than 1800 species of plants.

3.3 A profile of people with disability

While there have been many improvements in the lives of people with disability, significant barriers still remain. Data from the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) 2015 Survey of Disability, Ageing and Carers (SDAC) provides a profile of people with disability in Australia:

- Almost one in five Australians reported living with disability (18.3% or 4.3 million people)
- The majority (78.5%) of people with disability reported a physical condition, such as back problems, as their main long-term health condition. The other 21.5% reported mental and behavioural disorders
- The likelihood of living with disability increases with age, 2 in 5 people with disability were aged 65 years or older
- Almost 1/3 of people with disability had a profound or severe disability
- Around 3 in 5 people with disability needed assistance with at least one activity of daily life
- Around half of people with disability used aids or equipment to help with their disability
- People with disability aged 15-24 years were 10 times more likely to report the experience of discrimination than those aged 65 years and over

- Over one-third (35.1%) of women and over one-quarter (28.1%) of men aged 15 years and over had avoided situations because of their disability
- 53% of people with disability participated in the workforce, compared with 83% of people with no reported disability
- The weekly median income of people with disability was $465, which was less than half of those with no reported disability

Approximately 2000 people reside in the Shire of Jerramungup (based on ABS data from 2016). The population is rapidly increasing, and as it does so too does the diversity of the people in the local community. Based on the statistics provided by the ABS, that one in five people have a disability, it is estimated that approximately 400 people living in the Shire have a disability however the influx of retirees coming to visit the Shire will increase this number as according to the ABS survey, 50% of people aged over 60 identified themselves as having a disability. The seasonal influx of tourists, including tourists with a disability, must also be considered.

3.4 Planning for access and inclusion

Related legislation

To plan for better access and inclusion, there is a range of legislation and strategic framework to guide and direct the Shire in its delivery of services and facilities. These include:

Equal Opportunity Act 1994 (WA)	The Equal Opportunity Act recognises that people with disability require and are entitled to the same level of service as is available to other members of the community. This Act makes it unlawful for a person to discriminate against any person on the grounds of impairment.
Disability Services Act (1993)	The Disability Services Act states that a person with a disability has the right to be respected for their human worth and dignity and has the same human rights as other community members, regardless of the degree and nature of their disability.
Disability Discrimination Act (1992) (Commonwealth)	The Disability Discrimination Act (DDA) is a Commonwealth Act that provides protection against discrimination based on any form of disability (i.e. Physical, Intellectual, Sensory, Psychiatric and Neurological) for everyone in Australia. Under the Act it is unlawful to discriminate against a person or their associates (partner, carers, friend, family member or business partner), if they have a disability.

Australian Standards	The Australian Standards (AS) sets out requirements that must be referred to when making decisions that impact on people with disability: Australian Standard 1428 - Design for Access and Mobility prescribes the basic requirement for physical access which must be adhered to in the planning, development and construction of all buildings.
Building Code of Australia	The Building Code of Australia (BCA) applies to new buildings undergoing significant refurbishment or alteration. The BCA provides a comprehensive statement of the technical requirements relevant to the design and construction of buildings and other related structures
Count Me In	Count Me In – Disability Future Directions is the State Government’s long term plan based on its vision that, ‘All people live in welcoming communities that facilitate friendship, mutual support and a fair go for everyone’.
United Nations Convention on the Rights of People with Disability	Australia is one of 50 countries to have both signed and ratified the UN convention of the Rights of Persons with Disability, which came into effect in May 2008. As a party to the Convention, Australia is required to promote, protect, and ensure the full enjoyment of human rights by people with disability, and ensure that they enjoy full equality under the law

Planning for better access

The Western Australia Disability Services Act requires all Local Governments to develop and implement a Disability Access and Inclusion Plan (DAIP) to ensure that people with a disability have equal access to its facilities and services.

Other legislation underpinning access and inclusion includes the Western Australia Equal Opportunity Act (1984) and the Commonwealth Disability Discrimination Act 1992 (DDA), both of which make discrimination on the basis of a person’s disability unlawful.

3.5 Progress since 1995

The Shire of Jerramungup is committed to facilitating the inclusion of people with a disability through the improvement of access to its information facilities and services. Towards this goal the Shire adopted its first Disability Access Service Plan in 1995 to address the access barriers within the community.

Since the adoption of the initial Disability Service Plan, the Shire has implemented initiatives and made significant progress towards better access. Some of these are highlighted in Appendix 1.

4. Development of the Shire's Access and Inclusion Plan 2019 – 2024

4.1 Review

In preparing the Shire's Access and Inclusion Plan the following steps were undertaken:

- A review of the DAIP 2013-2018 to identify gaps and areas which require ongoing development
- Review of annual progress reports, relevant council documents and disability legislation
- Benchmarking in order to investigate best practice in access and inclusion

Responsibility for the planning process

The Deputy Chief Executive Officer has responsibility to oversee the development, implementation, review and evaluation of the plan. The final plan is endorsed by Council and it is the responsibility of all officers to implement the relevant actions.

4.2 Consultation process

The Disability Services Act Regulations (2004) set out the minimum consultation requirements for public authorities in relation to Disability Access and Inclusion Plans (DAIPs). Local Governments must call for submissions (either general or specific) by notice in a newspaper circulating in the Local Government area or on any website maintained by or on behalf of the Local Government. Other mechanisms may also be used.

In 2018 the Shire drafted a new DAIP to guide further improvements to access and inclusion.

The process will include:

- Examination of the existing DAIP to see what has been achieved and what still needs addressing.
- Examination of other Council documents and strategies.
- Consultation with staff from both the Shire of Jerramungup and relevant agencies.
- Consultation with Council
- Consultation with Community

The Community will be informed through the Bremer Bulletin and Jerry Journal (local newspapers) and the Council's website that the Shire is reviewing its DAIP. Members of the community are given the opportunity to provide comment.

4.3 Findings

The review and consultation found that many of the strategies and tasks within with 2013-18 DAIP had been achieved, however a small number were unsuccessful, ongoing or incomplete. The new 2018-2023 plan will continue to strengthen the overall Shire and community culture and aim to address access barriers at the local level. It will also recognise legislative requirements and strive for inclusion and access beyond the minimum compliance of the standards.

4.4 Responsibility for implementing the DAIP

Implementation of the DAIP is the responsibility of all areas of the Shire. The Disability Services Act (1993) requires all public authorities to take all practical measures to ensure that the DAIP is implemented by its officers, employees, agents and contractors.

4.5 Review and evaluation mechanisms

The Disability Services Act requires that DAIPs be reviewed at least every five years. Whenever the DAIP is amended, a copy of the amended plan must be lodged with the Disability Services Commission. The Implementation Plan can be updated more frequently if desired.

4.6 Monitoring and Reviewing

The Disability Services Act requires that DAIPs be reviewed at least every five years. Whenever the DAIP is amended, a copy of the amended plan must be lodged with the Disability Services after carrying out the requisite consultation and promotion processes. The Implementation Plan can be updated more frequently if desired.

The Shire is also required to report on progress in the prescribed format to Disability Services each year.

Employees with responsibility for the DAIP will analyse progress in implementing the DAIP and provide a report to management and Council on progress and recommended changes to the implementation plan annually

4.7 Evaluation

- An evaluation will occur as part of the five-yearly review of the DAIP.
- The community, staff and Elected Members will be consulted as per the endorsed consultation strategies, as part of any evaluation.

4.8 Reporting on the DAIP

The Disability Services Act requires the Shire to report on the implementation of its DAIP in its annual report outlining:

- progress towards the desired outcomes of its DAIP;
- progress of its agents and contractors towards meeting the seven desired outcomes; and
- the strategies used to inform agents and contractors of its DAIP.

The Shire is also required to report on progress in the prescribed format to the Disability Services Commission each year.

4.9 Promotion of the DAIP

The DAIP will be accessible from the Shire of Jerramungup website or emailed, mailed on request.

Promotion of the DAIP through local media outlets, for example the Bremer Bulletin and Jerry Journal will occur following the endorsement of the DAIP by Council.
