2 Public Effect of the Organisations Functions

2.1 Decision Making

The Shire of Jerramungup significantly affects the public (as a local authority) by providing a wide range of services and facilities. This service is carried out in a manner appropriate to the current and future needs of its communities.

The Shire of Jerramungup also has a role in the management, improvement and development of the resources within its area to create a safe and pleasant environment for its residents and ratepayers.

General information relating to Shire matters is published monthly in the Shire's Council Buzz along with the Bremer Bay Bulletin and Jerry Journal.

2.1.1 Council

Council consists of seven (7) Councillors elected by the residents and ratepayers of the Shire of Jerramungup of whom one is elected by Council as Shire President. Council is the decision making body on all policy matters. Meetings of Council are held on the third Wednesday of each month commencing at 2.00pm (unless advertised otherwise) and are open to the public. Council meetings are normally held in the Administration Building in Jerramungup, with the exception of the April, July and October meetings which are held in the Bremer Bay Town Hall.

2.1.2 Council Agendas and Minutes

Agendas and Minutes for all Council meetings are made available for viewing or purchase at the Shire's Administration Office or can also be downloaded on the Shire's website www.jerramungup.wa.gov.au. Minutes are available for viewing at both the Bremer Bay and Jerramungup Community Resource Centres the week following the Council meeting.

2.2 Legislation, Regulations, By-Laws and Powers

2.2.4 Local Planning Scheme

The Shire of Jerramungup's Local Planning Scheme No 2 was gazetted on the 12th January 2007.

The purposes of the scheme are to:-

- a) set out the local government's planning aims and intentions for the Scheme area;
- b) set aside land as reserves for public purposes;
- c) zone land within the Scheme Area for the purposes defined in the Scheme;
- d) control and guide land use and development;
- e) set out procedures for the assessment and determination of planning applications;
- f) make provision for the administration and enforcement of the Scheme; and
- g) address other matters contained in Schedule 7 to the Planning and Development Act.

3 Policy Formulation – Public Participation

3.1 Policies and Delegations

The Council adopts policies on a variety of issues to act as a guide for officers of the Shire and provide the basis for decision making. All current policies are contained with the Council's Policy Manual. A register of authorised delegations made by the Council to assist with the efficient administration of the municipality is also available for inspection.

3.2 Annual General Meeting of Electors

The Annual General Meeting of Electors is held once in every financial year and includes the presentation of the Annual Report and the Auditor's Report. Residents and ratepayers are encouraged to attend this meeting as it is an opportunity to ask questions and raise issues with local representatives. The Annual General Meeting is alternated between Jerramungup and Bremer Bay.

3.3 Working Parties, Sub-Committees and Consultative Groups

Interested members of the public, elected members and staff are able to nominate, be nominated or be selected as representatives on a variety of Shire related working parties, sub-committees or consultative groups or act as representatives or other external organisations. A current listing of these parties, sub-committees and groups is listed below.

All abovementioned committees meet as required.

4. Documents Held by the Organisation

4.1 Publicly Available For Inspection

The Shire of Jerramungup has a variety of documents available for public inspection or purchase. For example, Agendas, Minutes, Annual reports, Local Laws, Budgets, Policy Manual, etc, are available for inspection or may be purchased by paying a photocopying fee of 20 cents per page. A copy of Council Minutes can be viewed at no charge at the Shire's Administration office or the Jerramungup or Bremer Bay Community Resource Centres.

The district public libraries also have documents relating to the Bureau of Statistics, Education (university) brochures, Australia wide telephone directories, etc.

4.2 Documents Covered By The Act

Documents and information covered by the Freedom of Information Act include various items for example, maps, plans, personnel records, client records, building files and correspondence.

All documents received and sent are filed on a central records management system, these are recorded electronically and hard copies manually filed.

The files are divided into the following categories:

General files are a broad classification of files that are kept for projects, services, assets, and agencies that operate outside the Shire's Administration office. These agencies include district libraries, government departments, private companies etc. These files contain various documents and information relating to a particular service, project, asset or agency.

Personnel and payroll files are maintained by the Shire's Payroll Officer and Deputy Chief Executive Officer. These files only contain details on current and past employees which include personal information, medical reports, workers compensation, salary appraisals and leave entitlements.

Property (Assessment) files contain information relating to each property within the Shire boundary. This includes, but is not limited to, information on sale & settlement, building applications, planning applications, maps etc. Records dated before 1982, which is the year the Shire of Jerramungup was amalgamated, may still be filed with the Shire of Gnowangerup.

4.3 Retention and Disposal of Records

Standards for record keeping across government have been set by the State Archives through the Records Management Office. The General Retention and Disposal Scheme for Local Government has been developed to provide consistency throughout local government in the disposal and archival of all records.

The Shire of Jerramungup's active files are stored and maintained at the Administration office. Inactive or Closed files are either archived in suitable storage areas or destroyed as per the State Local Government retention and disposal schedule.
