QUESTIONNAIRE:

1. What do you think are the most important valued assets on the South Coast?

The assets comprehensively outlined in "Southern Shores 2009-2030, and responses to the 2004 Wellstead Estuary Steering Committee Questionnaire to residents and ratepayers listing Fishing, Birdlife and visual assets as important and worth preserving.

2. What do you consider to be the major threats to these assets?
Lack of understanding the fragile nature of the environment.
A sense of 'entitlement' held by some visitors to behave in socially unacceptable ways, because they are on holiday or relaxing.

3. What do you think are the most important things in working as part of a team?
Learning what is available, what is happening in similar regions.

Listening to other delegates, contributing to group projects, Birds 2020 and 'Code Off Road' planning.

4. Please outline any experience you have had working with community groups or organisations where teamwork has been important.

Membership of The Friends of the Fitzgerald River National Park for many years, serving as secretary and president, I value and appreciate the contribution of the committee and members. We are currently restoring Twertup Field Studies Centre for the benefit of the community.

5. Please outline any other knowledge/experience/skills you can bring to the committee.
 Membership 'Birdlife Western Australia', and Australian Wader Studies Group

Participate in the annual Shorebirds 2020 surveys, ongoing monitoring of resident and migrant shorebirds, liaison with WA Museum when appropriate.

Recently, 2013, awarded Certificate of Appreciation for commitment to bird conservation by the Tidy Towns assessors.

6. Why are you applying for the position?
 I have been a member of South Coast Management Group for the past 4 years. It is a group which is achieving much for the South Coast communities, and I would value the opportunity to continue this membership and contributing to the outcomes.
